

The eighth World Youth Transnational Championships are underway.

Sixteen teams entered the U31 Teams and after five rounds the field is led by the multi-national Team Washed Up, with 70.29 VPs out of a possible 100. The chasing pack is led by Polish team, Ania.

There are 19 U26 Open Teams, Poland leading the way at the end of day one with 67.09 VPs. Second is the Greek Team, Hellas U26.

There were 10 entries to the U26W Championship. At the end of day one, Poland 1 leads the way with 79.38 VPs, ahead of the multi-national Team Jenterne.

There is an impressive 29-strong field in the U21 Championship, and again we see a Polish team heading the rankings, this time Poland U21 with 83.24 VPs. The multi-national RDFZ G lead the chasing pack.

And last, but by no means least, there are 30 U16 teams, so just pipping the U21s, and the USA's Team Jack leads the way on 75.94 VPs.

Help!

We would very much like to make these bulletins the best that they can be, but there are only two of us and, sadly, we are not even in Wroclaw. Inevitably, we will be watching the wrong table when you or your partner produces a brilliancy, so we need you to tell us about it.

If you think that something that happens at your table is newsworthy, please let us know.

The easiest way is by email to: bsenior@hotmail.com

We don't need the hand diagram, or even the auction, as those are both recorded, but we do need explanations for any bids we are unlikely to be able to work out for ourselves. Otherwise, the round and board number, plus details of the play, please.

Of course, you are more than welcome to completely write up the deal yourself if you prefer, in which case the article will appear under your byline.

India v Slovenija

U31 QUALIFICATION ROUND 1

Brian Senior

Moving on from last week's European Youth Team Championships, it's nice to see a lot of new faces for these World Youth Championships. We start our coverage of these new championships with a match featuring two of those new teams, India A and Slovenija in the U31 series.

India A got off to a fast start with a game swing on the first board when the Slovenian declarer completely messed up the play in a cold game; 10 IMPs to India A, and some evidence of first-board nerves.

Though the respective Wests responded in different suits, the calls that made the difference started with Souvik Kar, for India A, freely rebidding 2♣ on the East hand, where Slovenija's Jon Mikos passed to suggest his minimum opening, and that made it possible for Surajit Bar to compete with 3♣ on the West hand, a brave action nonetheless, with only two small clubs.

Three Clubs was an easy make on the E/W cards on this layout for +110. Two Spades by North, reached via scrambling Stayman auction, required a little more work.

Mikos led the singleton ♦K against 2♠, Ghosh winning the ace and leading a heart to the king and ace. Mikos returned the queen of clubs, Ghosh winning the ace, cashing the queen of hearts, and continuing with king of clubs, pitching a diamond, and ruffed a club. Borut Zupan over-ruffed with the ♠J and returned a low diamond and Ghosh got that wrong by putting up the queen, ruffed by Mikos, who returned a club. Dummy and Zupan discarded hearts, while Ghosh ruffed in hand, ruffed a diamond, and led a heart, which Zupan ruffed low. Ghosh over-ruffed and took another diamond ruff, and that was his eighth trick for another +110 and 6 IMPs to India A.

Jaka Strohsack, for Slovenija, opened 1NT and Tina Drnovsek responded 2♠ to invite game. When Kar doubled, Strohsack bid 2NT to show a minimum, and played there. Bar duly led the ten of spades, Strohsack winning the ace and playing a club and claiming eight tricks for +120.

Roy also opened 1NT but Ghosh used Stayman and Mikos pre-empted with 3♠. Roy passed that round to his partner to make sure that he had values and, when Ghosh doubled, converted to 3NT, where he played. Roy ducked the spade lead then threw a heart from dummy on Zupan's continuation. He led a club to the ace followed by a diamond to the jack. That lost to the queen, and Zupan returned a low heart. Mikos needed to win the king and return a diamond to set up the fifth defensive trick, but that was not easy to see and in practice he put in the nine. Roy scooped in the ♡Q and nine tricks for +600 and 10 IMPs to India A.

Roy overcalled 2♥ and Ghosh was not tempted to bid on. Zupan led the ten of spades to the jack, queen and ace, and Roy cashed the top hearts then played a spade to the seven and king. Mikos returned a spade, so both club losers went away and that meant 11 tricks for +200.

Strohsack felt that he was too good for a simple overcall so started with a double. The 1NT response showed values, making Strohsack's 2♥ rebid forcing, and Drnovsek bid NT for a second time before Strohsack raised her to game. Having bid spades, Kar led a diamond against 3NT, but that proved to be no more successful than would have a spade lead. Dummy's ♦10 won the first trick and Drnovsek led a heart to the ten and queen. Back came the queen of diamonds to pin the jack. Drnovsek won the two top diamonds then cashed out five hearts and two black aces, so 10 tricks in all for +430 and 6 IMPs to Slovenija, their first IMPs of the championships.

Strohsack overcalled 1♦ and Drnovsek raised to 2♦ in competition – all very reasonable. When Kar made a Support Double Strohsack, not imagining that there might be a game his way, raised competitively to 3♦ and was allowed to play there. There were 10 easy tricks once trumps had divided evenly, so that was +130 to Slovenija.

Roy also overcalled 1♦ but Ghosh did not show diamond support immediately. However, when Roy made a take-out double of Mikos's 2♣ rebid, Ghosh admitted to diamond tolerance. When Mikos now showed his three-card heart support, Roy came again with the key bid in the auction – 2♠. Zupan competed in clubs and Ghosh in spades, and now Roy went on to the spade game. Roy won the club lead and cashed the ♠K and continued with the eight of spades to the ten. Then, leaving one trump outstanding, he played ace and another diamond. Zupan won the ♦K, cashed the ♣K, and led a heart through for the king and ace. But Roy could ruff the second heart, draw the missing trump, and cash the diamonds; +620 and 10 IMPs to India A.

Bar opened the West hand at the one level and after a pass from Drnovsek, Kar made a pre-emptive raise to 3♥. When Strohsack doubled 3♥, Drnovsek responded with a simple 3♠, but Strohsack had enough to go on to game. Kar led a heart, Bar winning the ace and switching to his club. Drnovsek won that in dummy, drew trumps in three rounds and claimed 10 tricks for +620.

Zupan opened 2♥ as dealer and Mikos raised to 3♥. When Roy doubled, Ghosh felt that he had enough to play game so jumped to 4♠, but now Roy was tempted by the lure of a possible slam so asked for key-cards. He signed off in 5♠ on finding that two were missing, but the damage had been done. Ghosh too received a heart lead to the ace and a club switch. He won, drew trumps ending in dummy, and led a diamond to the king. That lost to the ace, and Zupan wasted no time in cashing the ♦Q; down one for -100 and 12 IMPs to India A.

India A also had the better of a couple of partscore swings, and ran out winners by 47-18 IMPs, converting to 17.68-2.32 VPs.

Poland v Greece

U26 QUALIFICATION ROUND 2

Jos Jacobs

In the U26 category, 19 teams are participating so the format is a 10-round Swiss over two days, followed by a final. The advantage of this format is that BBO can show the top matches in each category. This made it an easy choice for me in Round 2. The teams from Poland and Greece, who participated in the European Teams Championships the other day, both booked a comfortable win in their first-round match and thus were immediately forced to meet at table one of the U26 category. They had decided to play in different partnerships from those who had been playing in the Europeans, just to give it a more transnational flavour, I assume... Let's see what they will produce today.

On the opening board, they produced a push in an easy heart game but on the next deal, the scorers got some work to do.

South led a heart to the queen and ace. Declarer crossed to the ♦A and tried a low club to the ten. South won the queen and continued hearts, North clearing the suit while still holding the ♣A. That was one down so Poland +50. A good club guess would not have helped declarer on correct defence but would have made N/S's life a bit more difficult.

In the Closed Room, West launched a tactical third-hand pre-empt.

Even this contract proved already too high. ♦A ruffed, a club to East's king and a trump. A club to the queen, and another diamond ruffed. Next came the ♣A on which South and West discarded diamonds. The ♥K was then taken by East's ace and a trump came back, taking out dummy's last trump, the king. Declarer still had a heart, a diamond and a heart ruff to lose, so he was one down in the end for another +100 and 4 IMPs to Poland.

Two deals later it was slam time.

Opposite the mini-NT, North's 2♣ started the evasive actions but, in the modern era, East hands like this cannot produce a double any more.

South led a low heart. Dummy played low so North won the ten and continued the suit. This led to a relatively easy down three for +300 and 5 IMPs to Greece.

On the last board of the set, the Greeks showed that they are still appreciating any chances for a juicy penalty.

South led a spade to declarer's ♠10. Declarer cashed three heart tricks and when they did not break, led a diamond from dummy. North rose with the ace and continued a spade. Now, declarer ducked South's ♠J. South went on to cash his master heart and exited in spades. By now, the count had been rectified for a simple enough throw-in squeeze in the minors on North. Declarer therefore played a diamond to the king and a diamond back, forcing North to lead away from his ♣Q98. Well done, and just made for +600 to Poland but still 5 IMPs to Greece. The final result: 34-10 or 16.78-3.22 VPs to Poland.

QUALIFICATION, ROUND 3

This round was very quiet. I only found just one deal fit for publication in the bulletin, so here it is.

As you can see, it is a cold slam for N/S but only in hearts.

The slam was scarcely bid in either the U31 or the Women categories: twice or just once.

In the U21 and the U26 categories, about half the E/W pairs got to slam, in each case, with only one exception, gaining a slam swing their way.

The most interesting contract was 7♥ by North. E/W had bid and supported diamonds but East, on lead, tried his singleton spade as an opening lead. Was he hoping to get a ruff? Maybe, but the outcome was -1510.

Here is what happened at the two tables of the Poland v Funbridge Blue match.
