Review Procedures

Updated: June 2023

The case will be reviewed by a person who was not involved in the original decision.

The Reviewer will check that the TD has gathered the necessary evidence of what occurred when the infraction arose.

The Reviewer will then need to be satisfied that the correct law was applied, and that other TDs were consulted where appropriate. In matters involving the judgement exercised by a player following unauthorised information, incorrect explanation or failure to alert, the Reviewer will clarify that suitable players have been asked appropriate questions to enable a judgmental view to be obtained.

Finally, the Reviewer will check that the ruling that was issued based upon all the information available to the TDs was within the bounds of reasonableness. The fact that the Reviewer might have determined a slightly different ruling would not be good reason for the ruling to be varied.

In the event that the process had not been followed properly in some material way, the Reviewer will ask the Head TD to correct the failings and issue a new ruling.
